Circular No. 6/2018 Dated 25.07.2018

Sub: Forests & Wildlife Department – Convening of Jana Jagratha
Samithy Meetings – Issuing Directions – Reg

Ref: G.O. (Rt) No. 51/2017/Forests dated 07.02.2017

In order to enlist the support of local residents in addressing the Human-Animal Conflict issues, the Government had ordered the constitution of Jana Jagratha Samithies (JJS) in all the Panchyaths / Wards facing this issue. So far 204 JJS have been constituted and they are functioning as per the above order. The JJS is required to meet once in three months. With the onset of monsoon, the Human-Animal Conflict issues have intensified in many of the fringe villages.

In order to effectively tackle this situation, it is necessary that the JJS meets at shorter intervals. Accordingly, the JJS will meet atleast once in a month. Accordingly the Convenors of JJS are required to ensure that the JJS meets once in a month till the present enhanced levels of Human-Animal Conflict issues are reduced and normalised.

Principal Chief Conservator of Forests (WL) &
Chief Wildlife Warden, Kerala.
