

NANKU (Mesua ferrea)

The pericarp contains a considerable amount of tannin. The flowers are astringent and stomachic.

Seed oil is used as an embrocation in rheumatism and for skin diseases. The fragrant flowers are used in perfumery.

Kernel meal, freed from oil is rich in Nitrogen and phosphorus is used as manure.

The wood of the species is very durable.

PLANT YOUR STAR TREE