

3. Name of forest station : Rajampara
Headquarters : Rajampara

Boundaries

North: - Starting from the south west corner of Kanamala forest station the boundary goes to due east for about 1150 metre to the hill point 438 thence to hill point 569, thence north-east wards for about 200 metres to the north-west corner of 1968 eucalyptus plantation, thence along the boundary of the said plantation which meets Mannarakulanji-Chalakkayam road and thence along the road eastwards up to Palappally.

East:- From Plappally the boundary runs along the Plappally-Moozhiyar road unto Angamoozhy bridge, road crosses Kakkaduar and thence along Kakkaduar down stream to Seethathodu.

South west: - Thence along Kakkaduar down stream where the Mannarakulanji-Chalakkayam road crosses the Kakkiar, thence along the road up to Madathummoozhy junction, thence along Madathummoozhy-Athikkayam road up to the meeting point of Bethanimala road with the above said road, thence along Bethanimala road up to Bethanimala thence along Bethanimala Mannappuzha road (through Kolamala gate) meets Rajampara reserve forest boundary thence along the reserve forest boundary where it crosses Arappumparathodu thence along the thodu down stream up to starting point.